Next Wednesday all the children will take part in a Karate workshop. This is a good opportunity for the children to try something different. Please ensure all your children have their PE kits in school on Wednesday.

Dovestone Literacy Project

Next week as part of our work with the Dovestone Learning Partnership, class 4 will be taking part in an exciting Literacy project. Students from Saddleworth School will be coming in to tell them all about it. We are very excited to see what this entails.

Consultation on Admissions

The Governors are looking to change the admissions policy which will effect families looking for a Reception place from September 2019 onwards. The new policy has been put on the website for consultation. If you have a child who will be starting school from September 2019 please take some time to read the policy to ensure you understand the changes. The consultation will finish at the end of January therefore if you have any comments about this, now is the time to discuss it.

Welcome Back Mrs Swift

Next week we welcome back Mrs Swift who has been on extended leave to attend her son's wedding. We will be very glad to have her back and can't wait to hear all about her time in New Zealand.

Snow

At St Agnes we value attendance to ensure your child has the best education possible. Thank you to all the parents who made an extra effort to get their children to school in the bad weather. As always in snowy conditions we will ensure the school is safe first and then send a text to inform you whether school is open.

Structured conversations

If your child is on AFA you should have received an invitation for you to meet with the class teacher on Wednesday 31st January. Please send back the slip with the time that suits you best as soon as possible. We are sure you agree that these meetings help you to keep up to date with your child's progress and are very important to help your child therefore it is vital that you attend.

Church service

The service this week will be held on Sunday at St Agnes Church at 9.15 am.
